

‘Why Fund Management is a great career for women’

24 August 2016, 17.00 – 20.00, with drinks and nibbles

Legal & General Investments, 1 Coleman St, London, EC2R 5AA

Hear career advice from our inspiring panel of female fund managers from across the investment community.

Please join us for a special event to highlight the benefits and challenges of building a career in fund management at our latest 50/50 by 2020 network event, co-hosted by Sapphire Partners and in collaboration with other investors.

Key Note Speaker

Panel Chair

Panelists

Lucy MacDonald
CIO Global Equities

Sarah Aitken
Head of Distribution

Esther Chan
Corporate Bond
Manager

Fiona Hagdrup
Fund Manager

Melissa Platt
Portfolio Manager

Eve Finn
Head of Portfolio
Solutions

Charlotte Harington
Asset Allocation
Analyst

Ella Hoxha
Hedge Fund Portfolio
Manager

Our key note speaker, Lucy MacDonald, CIO Global Equities at Allianz Global Investors shares her personal career journey and the challenges she overcame, followed by a lively panel discussion about building a career in the investment profession.

This event is for female interns and recent graduates who are progressing or considering a career in Fund Management.

To reserve your place on this free event: please email Sandra Omelia at sandra.omelia@lgim.com with the subject “50/50 by 2020 event” giving your name, job title, company name (where applicable), by close of business on Weds 17 August 2016. We will reserve your place and send you a calendar invitation with confirmation of all the details. Please feel free to forward this invitation to other young women you know who might be interested to attend.

