

Alumni Breakfast
Roundtable: Making an Impact Session 1

Saira George-Carballo

Global Markets Team at Clinton Health Access Initiative

Saira works on the Global Market Team at the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI), focusing on innovative financing to improve access to key healthcare commodities in low- and middle-income countries. Prior to this, she worked in strategy consulting at Simon Kucher & Partners and sustainable systems advisory at SYSTEMIQ. Saira holds an MSc in Management from LBS and a BSc in International Relations and History from LSE.

Alumni Breakfast
Roundtable: Making an Impact Session 1

Simon Meldrum

Investment Specialist at British Red Cross

At the Red Cross, Simon is responsible for developing alternative financial instruments to unlock private capital in support of the movement's mission. He co-chairs the Innovations in Humanitarian Financing Forum and the Investment Committee of Community Impact Partnership. Prior to the Red Cross, Simon managed a £45m blended social investment fund at Access Foundation. He has significant experience in social/impact investing, finance and international capital markets advising and arranging on projects of all types. He was awarded a scholarship for his MBA at London Business School and is a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin.

Alumni Breakfast
Roundtable: Making an Impact Session 1

Luke Edwards

Investment Manager at Bridges Fund Management

Luke is an investment manager for our Long-term Capital investment strategy. He spends his time looking for and assessing new investment opportunities, while also developing our existing mission-led businesses. Prior to Bridges, Luke was a lawyer at Linklaters and Slaughter and May where he advised on a range of cross-border financing transactions for M&A and leveraged buyouts, restructurings and projects in developed and emerging markets. At Linklaters, he was also a member of the Social Finance Cross-Practice team. Luke has a 1st Class MA (Hons) in History from Edinburgh University and an MBA from London Business School.