

MARDI GRAS TREK

NEW ORLEANS

FEBRUARY 6-10, 2027

What is Mardi Gras?

Mardi Gras (aka “Fat Tuesday”) is the final day of Carnival season, featuring a citywide celebration that builds for weeks before the fasting of Lent begins. New Orleans throws the United States’ biggest party for it: costumed krewes roll through the streets on elaborate floats, throwing beads and doubloons to the crowds, while brass bands, second-lines, and king cake keep the energy going from morning to night.

Krewes

Private social clubs that organize each parade and elect a King and Queen for the season.

Throws

Beads, doubloons, and hand-decorated coconuts tossed from the floats which become the city's favorite souvenirs.

King Cake

A cinnamon pastry ring hiding a tiny plastic baby and whoever finds it hosts the next party.

THE BIG EASY

About New Orleans

Founded by the French in 1718 and shaped by Spanish, African, Caribbean, and Creole influence ever since, New Orleans is a city where centuries of culture spill out onto the street. It's the birthplace of jazz, the home of Creole and Cajun cooking, and a place where wrought-iron balconies, brass bands, and the smell of chicory coffee define the everyday.

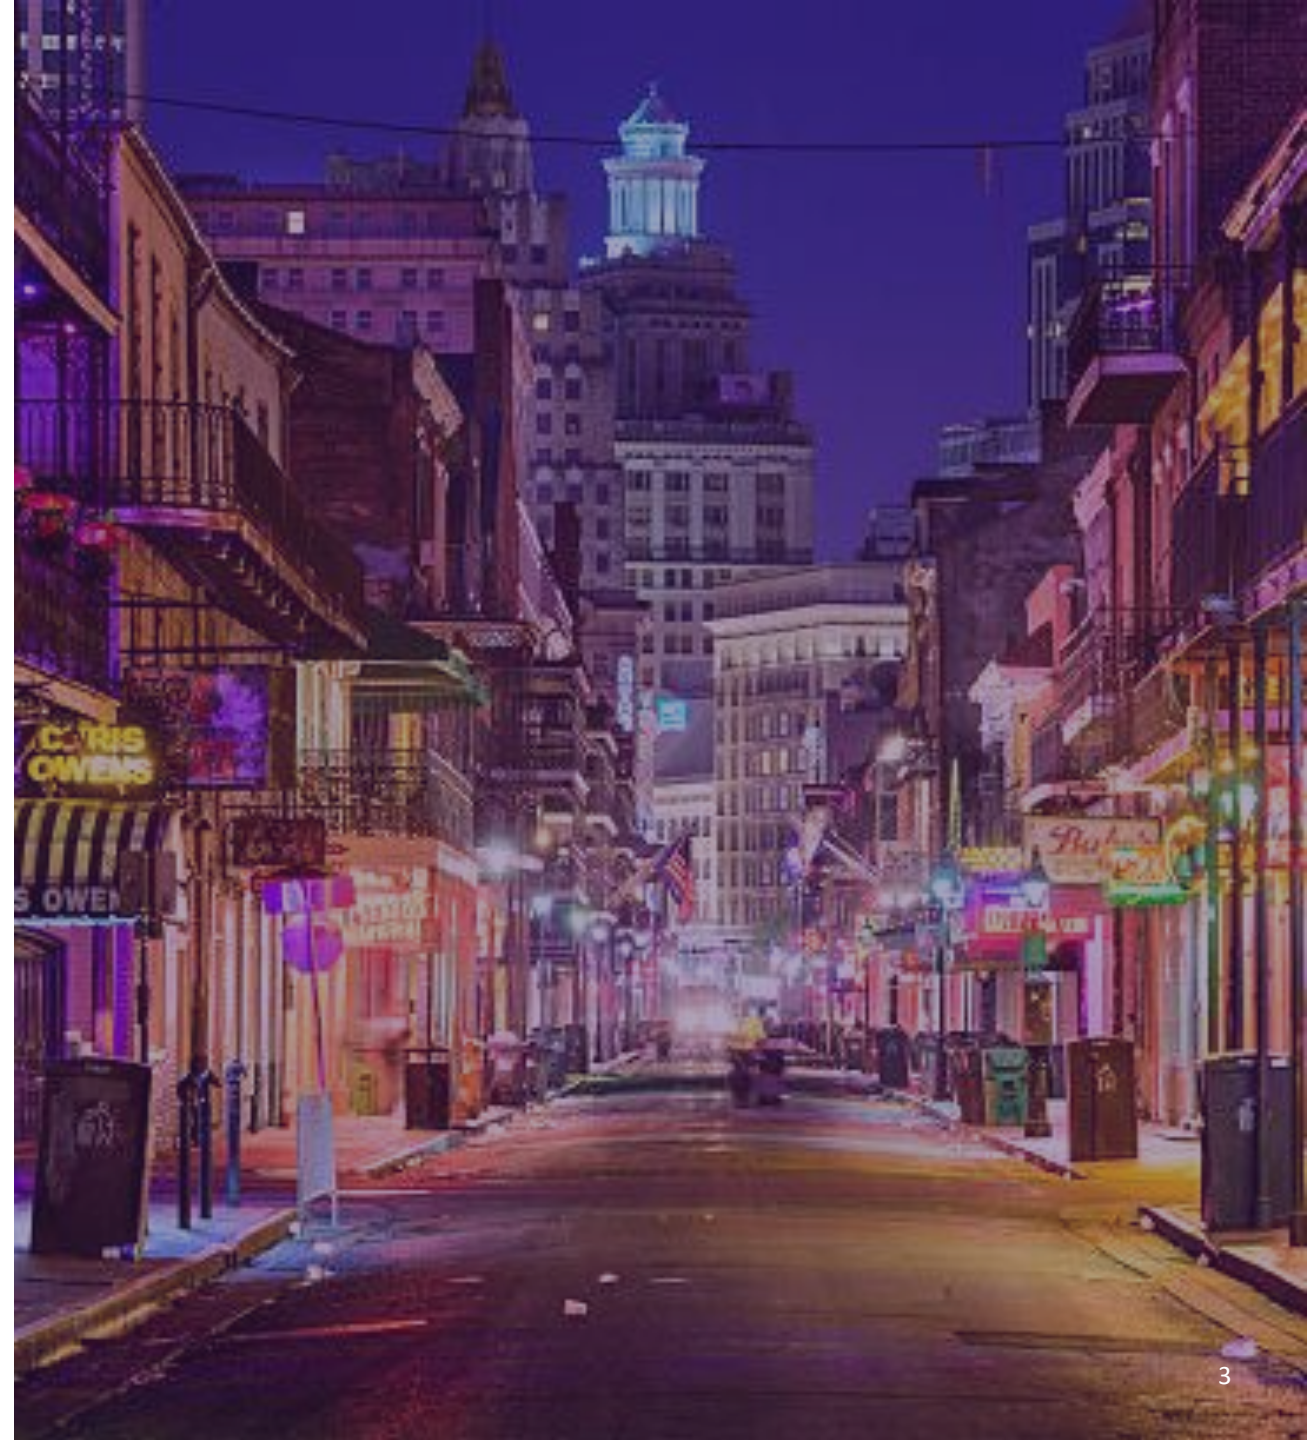

Birthplace of jazz, born in the early 1900s in Storyville and Congo Square

Home of Creole and Cajun cuisine with featured dishes including gumbo, po-boys, and beignets

The French Quarter where we will stay is the historic heart of the city, walkable end to end
